Advanced RML Sessions

- Each Advanced topic is facilitated in a 3 ½-hour virtual instructor-led workshop.
- Prerequisite Training: RML Core Role of the Leader

Leading Change

The speed of change in today's retail environment requires a new level of change leadership among district and regional leaders. While DMs are often the lead communicator on company initiatives, they need advanced skills and strategies to ensure all store managers and other field leaders are on board with these critical changes.

Participants learn how to search out levels of commitment and devise communication strategies for getting everyone on board with the change.

Turning Feedback into Change

Retailers use a variety of generic or custom tools to provide 360° feedback and/or gauge customer satisfaction.

Participants learn how to best share that feedback with their team in a productive way while enabling them to leverage whatever the feedback is in the most positive approach. Use MOHR Retail's DiSC® 365 feedback tool, Store Visit Effectiveness Survey, or your existing feedback and analysis tool.

Influencing for Results

DMs often must work with and persuade third party and/or HQ representatives to adjust priorities or support them in the field.

Participants learn an effective strategy for building trust and influencing others.

Communicating for Success

Today's leaders must develop skills to enhance their competence and credibility across their companywide relationships.

Participants explore what it takes to be a leader and demonstrate leadership presence, and how to build credibility and a reputation as a leader across the organization.

Peer Ideation

DMs frequently struggle with operational and marketing issues that have little to do with leadership.

DMs receive structured feedback and participate in idea-building with peers who may be able to come up with solutions to the DM's business challenge that they haven't thought of or that worked for others in similar situations.
